The Minister for Works has received the following report from the labour commissioners:—Summary of registrations and men assisted and sent to work during the three months ended November 30, 1930: Registrations, 1,000; sent to work, 1,674; dismissed, 1,000; employment for 12 months specified before, 816; failed to respond when notified, 543; declined acceptance and signature, 199; failed to appear after accepting and signing the usual document, 81.

It will be seen that of the 3617 men registered during the three months ended November 30, 1930, 220 were either sent to work or refused it when offered.

Only 52 responded, and of these a large proportion withdrew on learning particulars as to the locality.

CHINA.

WARNINGS TO THE ALLIES.

LONDON, Dec. 6. Friendly Chinese were the Allies of a fresh outbreak in the winter, and that they had refrained from sending mail ex. positions to the interior. The Boxers' placards have reappeared at Tientsin. The Yangtze river is gaining power at the Imperial court, and are substituting their troops for those of Tung-fu-wang.

IMPERIAL PARLIAMENT.

THE QUEEN'S SPEECH.

WAR IN SOUTH AFRICA.

TO BE PROSECUTED TO THE END.

LONDON, Dec. 6. The Queen's speech at the opening of the Imperial Parliament today was the shortest on record. It only states that Parliament is summoned to make further provision for the expenditure in regard to South Africa and China, and that other matters will be left till the spring.

The Marquis of Salisbury, in the House of Lords in the debate on the Address in Reply, intimated that the war in South Africa would be prosecuted to the end. The British policy, he said, was embodied in the proclamation published by Lord Roberts, annexing the republics. The granting of independence to the Boers was impossible.

In regard to China, Lord Salisbury said that the concept of Europe still subsisted, and lately it had assumed greater vitality than previously. There was very little doubt that it would be successful.

The Earl of Kimberley, leader of the Opposition in the House of Lords, frankly admitted that independence could not be restored.

SUPPLEMENTARY ESTIMATES FOR £10,000,000.

LONDON, Dec. 7. The "Daily Telegraph" states that the Government will bring down supplementary estimates, asking for £10,000,000 on account of South Africa, and £2,000,000 for China.

CAPE COLONY.

THE AFRICANER CONGRESS.

VIOLENT SPEECHES.

DEMAND FOR REPUBLIC'S INDEPENDENCE.

LONDON, Dec. 6.

The Canadian artillery, the Australians with two Maxims, and the New South Wales

Lanciers are encamped on the slopes around Worcester, in Western Cape Colony.

A cricket match between the Australian and a local team was postponed.

The troops are not allowed to enter the town.

The Dutch residents are incensed at the military precautions, especially at the fact that the guns are commanding the meeting-place of the Afrikaner Congress.

Two hundred Afrikaner delegates and members of the Dutch Church, as well as members of the Cape Parliament, will attend the Congress.

The Afrikaner Bond Congress met at Worcester yesterday. Mr. J. de Villiers, brother of the Chief Justice of Cape Colony, presided and made a temperate speech.

Mr. de Vos, who was a member of the Afrikaner Bond, which visited England, shared the English Liberals for their publicity.

After members of the Congress had made violent speeches, resolutions affirming that independence must be granted to the late Republics were carried with acclamation.

The proceedings then ended.

THE CZAR.

His temperature and his pulse are normal.

CANADIANS WELCOMED IN LONDON.

LONDON, Dec. 7.

A great reception was given to the Canadian soldiers in London. They were shown the sights of the city, and were invited to Parliament House, where the Marquis of Lansdowne, the Duke of Argyll, the Earl of Aberdeen, and the Earl of Devonport, the men, delivered a eulogium on their conduct in South Africa.

THE WRECK OF THE ROSS GULF.

LONDON, Dec. 7.

The captain and eight of the crew of the steamer Ross, which was wrecked near Corbiere, Jersey, were drowned.

THE AMERICAN JOCKEY, J. F. SLOAN.

LONDON, Dec. 7.

The stewards of the Jockey Club have decided that in future the license to ride will be issued to the American jockey, J. F. Sloan. This action has been taken on the ground that Sloan had accepted a present previous to riding the French horse, which was the Cambridge Stakes.

THE COMMONWEALTH CELEBRATIONS.

WESTERN AUSTRALIAN TROOPS.

PERTH, Friday.

The Government has decided to send 100 men from this colony to take part in the Commonwealth celebrations at Adelaide in the early part of the year.

The Boers' placards have reappeared at Tientsin.

The Yangtze river is gaining power at the Imperial court, and are substituting their troops for those of Tung-fu-wang.

THE TRANSVAAL.

BATTLE OF RIETFOONTAIN.

GALLANTRY OF COLONIALS.

HOURS UNDER A TERRIFIC FIRE.

MR. KRUGER AT THE HAGUE.

FLOWERS SCATTERED BEFORE HIM.

LONDON, Dec. 7.

Details of the battle of Rietfontein, north-east of Bronkhorst Spruit, fought by Major-General Buller on November 28, the following day, show that the enemy numbered 4000, under General Viljoen and Commandant Erasmus, were posted in a position extending across the plain for seven miles. Their left rested on the Rietfontein River. In their centre was a ridge, and at their rear was a number of small kopjes.

One hundred and fifty Queenslanders seized the heights on the left, where they were so hotly engaged at a range of 800 yards that they were reinforced by 100 Victorian troops.

The Royal Munster Fusiliers, the colonial forces, and other troops were exposed to the entire force of Boer fire.

After the ultimate retreat of the Boers 300 newly-made graves were discovered.

WOUNDS OF NEW ZEALAND OFFICERS.

LONDON, Dec. 7.

In the fighting at Rietfontein Captain J. Crawford (New Zealand) and Lieutenant F. Tucker (New Zealand) were slightly wounded in the abdomen. Lieutenant J. Montgomerie (New Zealand), who received a gunshot wound in the right hip, had the bone of the hip severely injured, it is believed. Captain S. Godfrey (medical officer, New Zealand) had his right thigh broken. The wound is serious. Lieutenant C. Somerville (New Zealand), who received a gunshot wound in the left arm, had one of the bones of the limb broken.

COMMANDANT DE WET.

PURSUED BY GENERAL KNOX.

LONDON, Dec. 7.

Commandant de Wet crossed Kameelpoort drift, on the Orange River, in the direction of Odendrift, on the Orange River, and the Odendrift drift is held by the Guards, and the Orange River is now in flood.

Major-General Knox, with a portion of his force, is pursuing Commandant de Wet. The remainder of Major-General Knox's brigade has gone to Bethulie.

DETERMINED ATTACK ON A CONVOY.

LONDON, Dec. 7.

Commandant Delarey's force on December 3 attacked with great determination a convoy on the way from Pretoria to Rustenburg, at Buffelsfontein. The escort consisted of 20 Victoria Mounted Infantry, 2 guns, and two companies of the West Yorkshire Regiment, and details of the Yorkshire Light Infantry. These took up a position on the west of the kopjes and fought with great gallantry.

The Boers entered the first half of the day and burned the waggon.

Major-General Buller sent assistance to the last half of the day, and the Boers were dispersed the following day (December 4). They lost heavily, some being killed by case shot 60 yards from the guns.

The British had 16 men killed and 23 wounded.

TWENTY-THOUSAND BOERS IN THE FIELD.

CONCERTED MOVE SOUTHWARDS.

LONDON, Dec. 7.

The "Standard" states that 20,000 Boers claim that there are 20,000 burghers still fighting, and that by far the greater number of those are participating in a concerted movement southwards.

NEW SOUTH WALES CASUALTIES.

LONDON, Dec. 7.

In the fighting at Schietfontein Private H. H. Handcock, of C Company Imperial Bushmen, was killed; and Private A. Smith, of the same company, was severely wounded.

LORD ROBERTS.

LONDON, Dec. 6.

Lord Roberts received an ovation at Durban. He has sailed for Capetown.

MR. KRUGER'S TOUR.

WELCOME AT THE HAGUE.

INTENSE POPULAR ENTHUSIASM.

LONDON, Dec. 6.

Mr. Kruger has started for The Hague.

LONDON, Dec. 7.

Mr. Kruger arrived at The Hague yesterday afternoon. He was received on the railway station by the Burgomaster, but there was nobody from the Court or from the Government present.

The arrival of the ex-President was the occasion of intense popular enthusiasm. 700 men and girls chanted selections from the Psalms. Another choir at the hotel where Mr. Kruger is staying sang a special hymn.

Three ladies preceded Mr. Kruger while he was ascending the staircase and scattered flowers before him.

Members of the Government have called on Mr. Kruger.

The Netherlands States General has passed a general resolution of sympathy with Mr. Kruger and of welcome to the Kingdom.
